LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL.

DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE AND LABOR,
BUREAU OF THE CENSUS,
Washington, D. C., October 15, 1908.

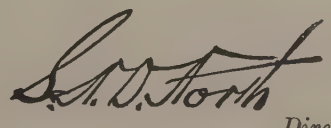
SIR:

I have the honor to transmit herewith Part II of the Special Report on Marriage and Divorce.

This report was made in conformity to a joint resolution of Congress, approved February 9, 1905, authorizing and directing the Director of the Census to collect and publish the statistics of, and relating to, marriage and divorce in the several states and territories and in the District of Columbia since January 1, 1887.

The first report by the Federal Government on marriage and divorce was made by the Commissioner of Labor in 1889 and covered the twenty years from 1867 to 1886. The present report covers, similarly, twenty years, from 1887 to 1906, and thus the statistics of marriage and divorce in this country are now available for a consecutive period of forty years.

This report was prepared under the supervision of Mr. William C. Hunt, chief statistician for population, with the advice and cooperation of Hon. Carroll D. Wright, who, as Commissioner of Labor, published the former report on this subject. The information upon which the report is based was secured from the county records, usually through personal visits of regular employees of this Office; but in certain counties in the South it was obtained by the Census cotton agents, and in many of the smaller and more remote counties by the court clerks themselves, who were specially commissioned for the purpose. It is a pleasure to add that, except in isolated cases, the employees of this Office were everywhere courteously received and were afforded every facility for the proper conduct of the work.



The portion of the report herewith submitted consists solely of the tabular matter or "General Tables," and presents in full detail the complete statistics for the twenty years covered by this investigation and also in more summary form the statistics compiled at the former investigation. The inclusion of the latter was considered desirable because the earlier report is now out of print. Thus this volume contains practically all the available statistics of marriage and divorce in the United States for a period of forty years, or from 1867 to 1906, inclusive.

Part I of the present report, which is now in preparation, will contain the analytical text discussing the statistics, and also a digest of the laws governing marriage and divorce in the United States, together with a presentation of the laws and statistics relating to these subjects in twenty foreign countries.

It may be proper to add that the publication of this report in two parts—one containing the text and the other the general tables—represents a new departure in the practice of this Office, which will probably be followed in presenting the results of the next, or Thirteenth, Census. It is believed to possess two distinct advantages over the method followed heretofore: First, it will conduce to the prompt publication of the statistics; the general tables naturally and necessarily are prepared in advance of the text and are usually ready many weeks or even months before the text. Secondly, the method proposed will permit of a more careful preparation of the text. Under the pressure incident to the effort to get out a report promptly it is impossible to bestow upon the figures the careful study and mature thought that are essential to the preparation of a readable and illuminative text discussion.

Realizing, however, that the figures as given in the general tables are too detailed and elaborate for popular use, being adapted rather to the purpose of the special student or expert, the Office has thought best to issue at the same time a brief advance bulletin presenting in summary form the totals and ratios derived from the detailed tables.

Very respectfully,

Director.

Hon. OSCAR S. STRAUS,
Secretary of Commerce and Labor.

[1] The act of May 2, 1890, creating the territory of Oklahoma, gave the United States court in Indian Territory jurisdiction over divorce; prior to that date there is no record of divorce.

[2] Organized from part of Dakota territory, November 2, 1889. Divorces granted in the counties then comprising Dakota territory are distributed between North Dakota and South Dakota according as the counties are now located in one or the other of these states, as indicated in Table 18.

[3] Organized from part of Indian Territory, May 2, 1890.

[4] All laws permitting divorce were repealed in 1878.

[1] The act of May 2, 1890, creating the territory of Oklahoma, gave the United States court in Indian Territory jurisdiction over divorce; prior to that date there is no record of divorce.

[2] Organized from part of Dakota territory, November 2, 1889. Divorces granted in the counties then comprising Dakota territory are distributed between North Dakota and South Dakota according as the counties are now located in one or the other of these states, as indicated in Table 19.

[3] Organized from part of Indian Territory, May 2, 1890.

[4] All laws permitting divorce were repealed in 1878.
